Black Angus

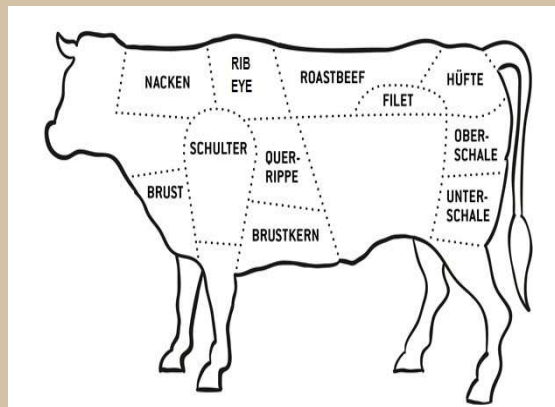

Unique taste!

This kind of American beef is finished with a balanced diet of grain.

Black Angus is famous for its tenderness and succulence.

This finishing process increases the marbling of the beef, making it more juicy and aromatic; this beef receives the highest rating for meat: Prime.

Based on strict rules set by the European Union, our imported beef has never been treated with growth hormones. The unique savor of our meat is all natural, enhanced only by our chef's creativity. We invite you to please your palate with our delicious dishes.
